

Travel on Koh Samet

To get around the island there are a lot of small minibuses for service of the tourists.

The price starts from 30 baht/person. And to rent a car:

From Pier to Sai Kaew is 100 baht/1 trip

From Sai Kaew to Ao Prao is 300 baht/1 trip

From Sai Kaew to Wong Doan is 300 baht/1 trip

From Sai Kaew to Ao Lungdam is 400 baht/1 trip

From Sai Kaew to Ao Wai is 500 baht/1 trip

From Sai Kaew to Ao Klu is 700 baht/1 trip

To hire a car to go around the island is 1,000 baht/1 trip

To rent a motorbike is 150 baht/1 hour

KHAO LAEM YA - MU KOH SAMET NATIONAL PARK

MARINE NATIONAL PARK

Royal Forest Department

For more information

Please contact Khao Laem Ya-Mu Koh Samet National Park, Ban Khon Ao, Tambon Phe, Muang District, Rayong Province 21160, Thailand; Tel: 0-3865-2136, Fax: 0-3865-3034 or the Marine National Park Division, Natural Resources Conservation Office, Royal Forest Department, Chatuchak Bangkok 10900, Thailand; Tel: 0-2579-7047-8

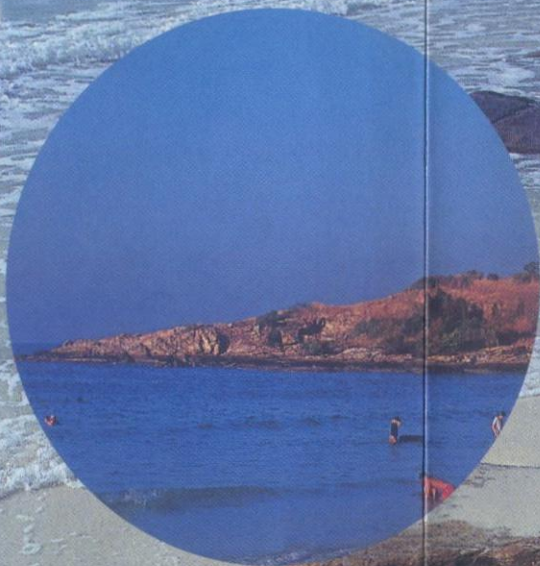

Samet Island

Koh samet is the largest island in Khao Laem Ya-Mu Koh Samet National Park, has a total area of approximately 720 hectares and far from Ban Phe approximately 6 kms. High cliff are on the western side while beautiful beaches are mainly along the north - east coast of the island. With very fine dazzling white sand, Sunthorn Phu, the Shakespeare of Thai Literature called "Koh Kaew Pisdarn".

Attraction Place

Hadd Sai Kaew

Hadd Sai Kaew is approximately 800 meters from Samet Pier on the southeast direction. It is considered to be the most beautiful beach because of its very fine white sand. Sai Kaew beach runs for 780 meters along the east coast of the island.

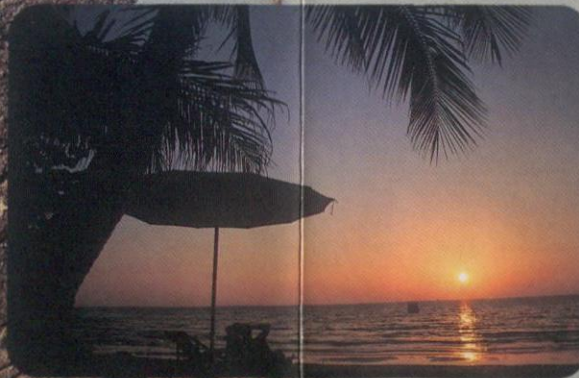

Ao Phai

Next to Sai Kaew beach. One of the most beautiful beach for swimming.

Ao Wong Doan

Of the crescent shape. Ao Wong Doan is located on the middle of the island, with white sand, approximately 500 meters long. At the back of the beach, there is a beautiful sunset view point and it is also the location of the second entrance fee.

Ao Putscha

In the front is the long line of Krajom mountain which connected to Ploywaen mountain, which give a magnificence view of sunset.

Activities :

Snorkeling

The sea surrounding some of our islands is abound with a variety of fascinating marine treasures – rare, beautiful and extremely delicate.

Camping

Pitch your tents and spend your nights out in the wilds under the stars. Site – seeing around Samet island. The variety of its natural wonders is as endless as the diversity of its culture and tradition.

Ao Wai

Ao Wai is a quiet beach with beautiful trees.

Ao Pakarang

Ao Pakarang located on the south of Koh Samet, with coral reef for skin diving.

Ao Phrao

A beach located on the west of Samet island, with white sand. It is approximately 200 meters long.

MAP OF KOH SAMET

